

THE AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

ASSOCIATE DEGREES RULES 2006

(200504267)

The Council of the Australian National University makes these Rules under section 7 of the Programs and Awards Statute 2004.

Dated: 9 December 2005.

Peter Baume AO
Chancellor

Name of Rules and commencement

- 1.(1) These Rules are the Associate Degrees Rules 2006.
- (2) These Rules commence on the day after they are registered.

Definitions

- 2.(1) In these Rules, unless the contrary intention appears:
arrangement means an arrangement to which rule 3 refers;
associate degree means an associate degree referred to in column 3 of an item in the Schedule that is administered by a Faculty mentioned in column 2 of that item;
program means a program of study for an associate degree;
student means a candidate for an associate degree.

Application

- 3.(1) Notwithstanding anything else in these Rules, if the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) arranges, in writing, for a program to be offered in cooperation with another institution, the arrangement prevails over these Rules and these Rules are to be interpreted accordingly.

Associate Degrees

- 4.(1) The University offers the associate degrees set out in the Schedule.

Application for admission to candidature

- 5.(1) A person wishing to pursue an academic program for an associate degree must apply in accordance with the arrangement for enrolment in the program.

Enrolment

- 6.(1) A person may be enrolled as a student in a program in accordance with the arrangement.

(2) A person enrolled as a student under subrule (1) is taken to have commenced the program on the date on which the student commenced the program for the associate degree.

Program of study

7.(1) A program consists of a sequence of undergraduate courses to a value determined by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education).

Student may complete certain courses at approved institutions

8.(1) A student may complete some or all of the courses for the program at another institution approved by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education).

Duration of program and program leave of absence

9.(1) Unless the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) otherwise determines, a program is to be completed within 2 years after the commencement of the program.

(2) The arrangement for the program may provide for the approval of a period of program leave of absence and the terms under which such approval may be given.

Academic Performance

10.(1) The academic performance of a student is to be assessed in accordance with the arrangement.

Examinations

11.(1) Examinations are to be conducted in accordance with the arrangement or otherwise as approved by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education).

Classifications of performance of student

12.(1) The classification of performance of a student is to be in accordance with the arrangement.

Award of associate degree

13.(1) If the relevant Dean decides that a student be granted an associate degree, the Dean may resolve that the student be awarded the associate degree.

[NOTE: Rule 17 of the Discipline Rules provides for withholding of awards where obligations to the University have not been met.]

Review of decisions

14.(1) The review of a decision taken by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) or a Dean under these Rules is to be conducted in accordance with the arrangement.

Application of amending rules

15.(1) If an amendment is made to these Rules, and that amendment affects a program to which these Rules relate, that amendment does not apply to a student who, before the making of the amendment, has completed any work towards an associate degree unless:

- (a) the student elects that the amendment apply to the student and the proposed alterations are approved under the arrangements for the program; or
- (b) the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Education) otherwise determines.

Repeal

16.(1) The Associate Degrees Rules 2005 as amended and in force immediately before the commencement of these Rules, are repealed.
