

DAVID CANNADINE SEMINAR

‘Writing the History of the British Empire: Challenges and Comparisons’

Humanities Research Centre
Old Canberra House
The Australian National University

Conveners:

Professor Ian Donaldson, HRC, E: ian.donaldson@anu.edu.au
and Dr Paul Pickering, HRC, E: paul.pickering@anu.edu.au

Tuesday 16 August 2005

- 9.30 Welcome and Introduction
- 9.45 David Cannadine, University of London
Writing the History of the British Empire: Some Anglo American Challenges and Comparisons
- 10.15 John Gascoigne, The University of New South Wales
Wider Still and Wider: the Expanding Historiography of the British Empire
- 10.45 Kate Fullager, ANU
Eighteenth-Century New Worlds
- 11.15 Morning Tea/Coffee
- 11.45 Paul Pickering, ANU
Loyalty and Rebellion: The Campaign Against Convict Transportation
- 12.15 Janet Doust
Everything is English – purely English – or an imitation of England: English Migrants in Eastern Australia, 1815-1860
- 12.45 Marilyn Lake, La Trobe University, Melbourne
The Australian-American Challenge to Empire: 1908
- 1.15 Lunch
- 2.00 Open Discussion
- 3.00 Seminar ends

Other participants:

Ian Donaldson
Grazia Gunn
Caroline Turner
Ann Curthoys
Christine Wright
Anthony Milner
Jane Carruthers

Jennifer Ridden
Harry Wise
Yvonne Ward
Tina Parolin
Sylvia Marchant
Tiffany Shellam

Phil Sheldrick
Mary Cody
Ian Proudfoot
Dianne McGowen
Laurence Brown