

Civil Unions, Gay Marriage What's the problem?

Discussion Workshop

Monday May 14

2pm–5pm Old Canberra House Lennox Crossing ANU

5pm–7pm Drinks and performance from the
Canberra Gay and Lesbian Qwire

Why is the legal recognition of same sex relationships so difficult to achieve in a society that regards itself as secular, diverse and tolerant?

This workshop discusses why the legal recognition of same sex relationships has become such a battlefield in Australian politics. Using the ACT experience as an example, this workshop attempts an analysis of the legal, political and cultural questions that emerge from this issue.

Participants

Rodney Croome
Tasmanian Gay and Lesbian Rights Group

Wayne Morgan
College of Law ANU

Heidi Yates
